

Kieran D. Hurley, Esq.

Kieran Hurley is the Director of Criminal Justice Services for CareSource, a leading non-profit public sector managed-care company. Previously, he was the Director of Treatment Services at the Court Clinic Division of Central Clinic in Cincinnati, OH. In that role he ran mental health courts, Veteran's treatment courts, and oversaw diversion based programs for justice-involved clients in the county court system. He worked as a Legal Aid attorney in Greater Cincinnati after graduating from the University of Cincinnati Law School as a Weaver Fellow of Law and Psychiatry in 2006. Prior to attending law school, a career as a social worker in the community mental health system provided the opportunity to work in emergency homeless shelters, state hospitals and with the first Forensic ACT team in Ohio.
