

Sunday, August 3, 2014

1:00 p.m.	Guided Walking Tour of Yale University Tour departs from the Omni Hotel, Lobby
2:00 - 5:00 p.m.	Registration Omni Hotel, Lobby (located to the right of the elevators near Jo Bella Salon)
3:00 p.m.	Special Presentation-Film Screening and Discussion Omni Hotel, Temple Room, 2nd Floor The Worst of the Worst: Portrait of a Supermax Prison This film is a depiction of Connecticut's only supermax prison, where many inmates are held in solitary confinement for months and even years at a time. The film includes interviews with a range of experts and administrators interwoven with the stories of the inmates and corrections officers who spend their days in the prison. The viewing will be followed by a discussion. Panelists: James E. Dzurenda, Commissioner, Connecticut Department of Correction Aleshia Hall, Director, Community Relations and Legislative Affairs, Connecticut Department of Correction Hope Metcalf, J.D., Associate Research Scholar in Law, Yale University Moderator: Craig Prins, Executive Director, Oregon Criminal Justice Commission
5:00 - 7:00 p.m.	NASC 2014 Opening Reception Omni Hotel, Harbor Room, 19th Floor Welcome: Toni Harp, Mayor, New Haven, Connecticut Dine around New Haven

Networking and Social Events

The NASC Conference offers attendees networking and social events in addition to the educational sessions. Every year, the conference brings together judges, legislators, correctional officials, policy makers, academics, researchers, and practitioners from around the country to examine our nation's experiences with sentencing laws and practices and to discuss emerging issues and innovations.

Opening Reception:
Omni Hotel
Harbor Room
Sunday, August 3
5:00-7:00 p.m.

Join us as we kick off the conference with a reception that will be held on the 19th floor of the Omni New Haven Hotel at Yale, which has views overlooking the New Haven city skyline.

NASC Reception & Dinner: Union League Café
Monday, August 4
6:30-9:00 p.m.

NASC invites attendees to the dinner & reception being held on the 2nd Floor of the Union League Café, located at 1032 Chapel Street, New Haven.

Located in the heart of New Haven's historic theater and entertainment district, the Union League Café is a French-inspired brasserie designed to offer a lively atmosphere, superb cuisine and acclaimed wine.

