

Stan Orchowsky, Ph.D.

Stan Orchowsky is the owner and principal of Cambiare Consulting, which specializes in research and program evaluation for criminal justice, mental health, and social services agencies and organizations. Dr. Orchowsky has over 40 years of experience conducting and supervising research and evaluation. Prior to starting his own consulting business, he served as Research Director for the Justice Research and Statistics Association, a non-profit criminal justice research organization in Washington, DC. Dr. Orchowsky also served as Evaluation Section Chief for the Virginia Department of Criminal Justice Services and as a researcher for the Virginia Department of Corrections.

Dr. Orchowsky received his B.A. in social psychology from Florida Atlantic University in Boca Raton, and his M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in psychology from Virginia Commonwealth University in Richmond.